Product Description

Lord Krishna here is depicted standing in a very attractive pose holding his favourite musical instrument, flute. He is said to be the incarnation of lord Vishnu, in Treta yuga, in order to establish victory of good over evil. He is epitome of love, peace and harmony. He also is brave, courageous and protective towards his subjects. His beautiful expressions can spell-bound any soul, his flute tune could hypnotize everyone. He was a cow-boy of Gokul Dham who was loved by one and all. Bring home this mesmerizing statuette of lord Krishna and experience the love, warmth and peace in your surrounding.
