Product Description

Lord Vishnu had two sole purpose for incarnating as Krishna: one to spread the message of selfless pure love and other to eradicate the evil from the earth. Lord Krishna was epitome of love, affection, compassion and mercy. He is the embodiment of courage, bravery and power. Lord Krishna since childhood was mischievous and playful; his little tricks would captivate every heart. He used to take his cattle for grazing near the river bank and would play melodious tunes on his flute to attract the beautiful milk maidens; his favorite of them was Radha rani. In this scroll the two are depicted sitting over an elephant designed by assembling numerous gopis. This beautiful scene reminds us of the famous Rasleela of Lord Krishna in Vrindavan, so grab this beautiful scroll to feel surrounded by love and amplify the beauty of your house with a slight touch of mythology.
