Born into a royal family, privileged with all luxury and opulence Lord Buddha was away from any kind of reality of harsh life. he was a father of a son. By the age of 29, everything was going as smooth as before, but one day while on the way to Kapilavastu Lord buddha, came across three aspects of life the old, the sick, and the dead. These seen trouble him and make him think does his wealth will prevent him from facing these phases. While returning on the way to the palace he came across a monk, who was walking peacefully down the road. These experiences changed Buddhas looking into life and he left all the luxury and royal life in search of illumination. Which he found at 35, through deep meditation and concentration in Bodh Gaya under a Bodhi tree. He began teaching all his life the four noble truths to others, and the path to achieving enlightenment. The teaching statue of Lord Buddha is widely known as Dharma chakra Buddha. In this pose Lord Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus in the Vajrasana pose, the lotus signifies the hardship of growing even after in dirty water yielding into a beautiful flower. likewise human also has the potential to overcome pain and get enlightenment. Both his hands are held near the chest, symbolizing the teachings are coming directly from the heart. Forming a circle with the index and thumb of both the hands denotes the (Dharma chakra) "Wheel of Dharma". The word Dharma means "righteousness" and chakra means " universe" coining together it depicts universal righteousness order. The remaining fingers of the two hands remain extended. Each of them has some significance like the middle finger of the right hand denotes the listener of the teaching. The ring finger symbolizes the solitary Buddha (who independently achieves liberation), the little finger denotes Mahayana Buddhism. The other three fingers of the left hand denote the gems of Buddhism first the Buddha, The Dharma (teachings), and the Sangha (the spiritual community). Lord Buddha's teaching posture is a reflection of pure wisdom and spirituality, so people seeking spiritual growth in life should consider keeping a teaching Buddha in their space. Also, teaching Buddha is beneficial for people's desire to achieve academic success. Placement: As it invites growth and enlightenment keeping the statue at the Northeast corner will be favorable for academic and spiritual development. Position: Sitting

Description: Sand Stone Eka Mudra Budha Sculpture 18inch 12. A weathered finish statue with a peaceful sense of the look. An elegant sculpture becomes more beautiful with age.

Siddhartha Guatama, a name given by his family, son of queen Mahamaya and king Shudhodana clan of Kashya tribe. Upbrought with wealth and opulence, Gautama was unaware of outside affairs of the world, the pain or any suffering human faces in his life. He married and father of a son. Until the age of twenty-nine, life was going as before but a sudden incident changed the way of looking into life. One day he went outside his palace when he saw, encountered an old person, a sick man, and a corpse, each or the first time. In the same way, he saw a monk who was walking on the road with a peaceful look on his face. This event forces him to realize that every human is subject to old, sick, and death. No wealth or opulence would protect him from suffering these definite fates of humans. He left the royal life and went out to search for a way to overcome all the Dukha. Six years following different practices, couldn't find a satisfactory answer. He finally finds a middle way. Sat beneath a fig tree in deep meditation. The final moment away from achieving his goal, a demon king named Maara tried to tempt him and prevent him from accomplishing it. Knowing this Gautama lowered his right hand to the earth and roared 'i bear you the witness" to which the earth goddess appeared and sweep Maara in a flood and allowing Gautama to achieve enlightenment, from the day he was named Buddha 'a person who is awake"

The statue above is widely known as earth touching Buddha, or Bhumisparsa Buddha, in this pose Lord Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus, with eyes completely closed in deep meditation. The right hand lowered over the right knee pointing fingers towards the Bhumi(ground), palm facing inward. The left hand remains flat on the lap, palm facing upward in Vitarka mudra. the Vitarka mudra represents the flow of energy.

This form is widely known as the Amitabha pose, "the boundless light". As it represents focused concentration, so keeping the statue is beneficial for people who desire to live in peace and calm. It also helps to improve meditation skills.

Placement: Keep the statue east facing. Also favorable if you consider keeping him in the Northeast and southwest corners it activates the earth element. A spiritual gift for your loved ones too.

Care: Use a dry cloth or a broom to dust the Buddha statue.

Product Description

“Fill your mind with me, Love me, Serve me, and Worship me always. Seeking me in your heart, you will at last be united with me.” Radha Krishna the famous mythological love tale. Two names that are always taken together are depicted standing under the tree making love in the statue. Here lord Krishna, one of the incarnated forms of lord Vishnu in Tretayayug to establish dharma had enchanted every cowgirl of his city by his mesmerizing beautiful appearance and the pleasant flute rhythm. One of those cowgirls was Radha who selflessly fell in love with the lord but could not marry him. But impressed by her devotion she achieved a position which no other wife of lord Krishna could have. The world knows Krishna to be the beloved of Radha and their love is exemplified as not every love meets its destination of marriage but it becomes eternal and forever remembered by all. So spread the message of love in the atmosphere by bring home this beautiful statuette and fall in love with the divine almighty.
