About Lord Buddha: Born as a prince, until the age of twenty-nine, raised with wealth and luxury. His path of life changes when he encountered the universal truth of suffering the "Dukha" of life. He realized the truth, that his wealth cannot save him from facing the suffering of getting old, falling sick, and death. There is when he left all the luxury and walk away in searching for a way to evade the suffering. Which he finally discovered six years later after attaining enlightenment. He spent the remaining life teaching others to achieve the path of enlightenment. Lord Buddha has been achieved the supreme state of percipience, and erudition. He gave his first sermon in Sarnath, which includes the four noble truths and the eight-fold path. About this soapstone masterpiece: Like other differential postures of Lord Buddha from sitting to reclining, his head always depicts the same feature in all postures. The head is also filled with many, aspects of his life. The bumpy head depicts the knowledge and insight he attains after enlightenment. The dot on his forehead refers as the third eye represents his ability to see beyond the materialistic and physical world. His semi-closed eyes can see the inner as well as the outer self. His lengthened earlobes illustrated his ability to hear of suffering and a better understanding by responding it to. His lips which are always depicted with a smirk smile represent the freedom from the chain of suffering as well as the real understanding of the universe. His head is the iconic representation of his characteristic. It displays the ocean of knowledge and wisdom he possesses being the awakened one. Happiness comes from inner peace, but it is difficult to earn in this hectic time lifestyle. Keeping the head of Lord Buddha bust, which itself is the epitome of peace and compassion will amplify the positive energy into life. Placing him to the east, in the kids' or study room will be beneficial for academic growth. Placement - An architect recommendation: Create a space in the garden balcony, among the flower pots. Or put him on the console table with a few other figurines. You can opt to place it in the middle of a sideboard between two lamps will add more adornment to your decor. The best gifting option for your dear one on their special occasion. Care: Pinkstone materials are widely appreciated for their nonporous nature, so cleaning these statues is extremely easy to use a cloth or broom to dust the surface.
