Product Description

Nritya Ganapati as the name propone a happy dancer, the cheerful and delightful form of Ganesha God Statue. Here the lord is on one leg slightly bent on the ground while the other is above the ground and bent towards the knee. The statue is standing on a lotus platform.

Material: Sandstone/Redstone Dimension (HWL): 48 x 23 x 12 inch Height: 4 ft (approx.)

Positioning: Dancing

Here the dancing lord stone sculptures have four hands. One broken tusk (which he used to write Mahabharat epic) in the right hand which is an example of sacrifice, an elephant goad in the lower right hand for the destruction of ignorance and illusion. Prayer beads in the lower left hand represent the continuous hunting of knowledge and the sweet laddoo is the appraisal of spiritual life. Also, his tusk is curled in the end and holding his favorite pudding "modak".

Lord Shiva known as the father of Ganesha famous for his dance in anger as "Rudra Tandava" while the dance of his son is depicted as "Ananda Tandava". He is not only the deity of knowledge, wisdom, and learning also known as Rangaraj, a delicate dancer and performer which he inherited from the dance of tandava form and lasya form from his mother goddess

Parvati and unifies both dances beautifully. Whenever we face any trouble, one deity that comes to our mind first is Lord Ganesha, the remover of all difficulty. The three-segment of a pleasant life is fortune, joy, and fitness which the Ganesha is known for fulfilling. So this form of Ganesha god is widely homage by artists and dancers. Placement: Dancing Ganesha increases the positivity if placed in the southeast direction. Never place the dancing Ganesha in the prayer room. It can be an auspicious gift for any purpose to your loved one. Care: Sandstone material is the finest and easiest to clean, out of all other elements as it does not require periodic cleaning. "Bring in the statue of happiness and obtain good luck in your life."
