Goddess Mangala Statue on Sandstone is a must-have investment for anyone. The attractive design looks sleek and modern while remaining sturdy enough for years.

Material: Sandstone / Redstone

Dimension(WHL): 18 inch

Height: 18 inch or 1.5 feet

A brief explanation of Maa Mangala statue:

- The statue displayed here is of "Goddess Mangala".
- She has four arms two at back and two in the front on which she is holding a disk, rosary, lotus bud, and the fourth hand-counting beads.
- Sitting on a Lotus plinth adorning a smiling face a lion her mount is seen beneath her feet.

About Goddess Mangala:

- One of the embodiments of Shakti is "Maa Mangala".
- In Buddhism, she is considered Goddess Devi Tara.

- Goddess Mangala held herself undisclosed under the deep water of river Prachi. Once a boatman was drifting his boat across the river Prachi. At that time the river was deluging and flooded, so he was incapable to sail his boat to the middle of the river. He spent the whole day and night but was not able to float his boat and in the early morning, before daylight, Goddess Mangala came into his dream and asked him to regain her from the water and to designate her in nearby Mangalapur village. The boatman plunged into the water and was able to find the deity from the bed of the river.
- The famous celebration in the temple is “Jhamu Yatra”, which begins in the month of Vaisakh (April to May) of every year. This falls first to the fifth Tuesday of the month Vaisakh. On that occasion devotees (ghanta Patua) collect river water from the river Prachi and pray to the idol to get her blessings, then with the earthen pot, filled with river water, on their shoulder and walk on the surface of burning fire spread on a long track on bare feet. Due to their faith in Maa Mangala, the Devotees are unhurt and untouched while completing such a tough tradition.

Ideas to install the home garden sculpture:

- Place her among the beds of flowers, such as petunias, violas, Calibrachoa, etc adds life to the sculpture.
- Give your garden a lush green makeover by raising ground covers between the rocks to display the sculpture for an exceptional look.
- Make a space in the garden where you can sit, relax and physically touch the statue with an inviting and functional garden bench.
- Place the statue amid an architectural water feature or sprouting fountain for a prettier look.
- Uplift the statue to make it the center point of the garden along the stepping stone or pathway by using gravel and tapestry.
- You may use it for worshipping in-home and at the temple.

Benefits of the home garden statue:

- Helpful to get a good life partner and to lead a happy marital life.
- Abate Mangal Dosha in your birth chart if you have any.
- She blessed her devotee with a peaceful and pleasant life.

Clean-up guide for the Mangala statue:

- Soak the garden statue with water using a pipe or garden hose.
- While it is wet, scrub the whole sculpture using a sponge or brush to eliminate moss and debris.

- When you are done cleaning the amass, give the garden statue a final shower & let it air dry.

A classic affair showcasing the talent of carvers, a great option for any space with a minimalistic look suitable for both indoor and outdoor. The glossy finish of the "Maa Durga idol" makes it an attractive accent piece. Material: Sandstone / Red stone Dimension (HWL): 30 x 21 x 10 inch Position: Sitting Height: 2.5 ft (approx.) Let's unfold the glorifying image of the home garden statue:

- The above sculpture acclaims the image of Goddess Durga. The invincible Goddess.
- The statue depicted here is sitting on her fierce mount lion, with four arms carrying a thunderbolt and sword while gesturing in Varada and Abhaya mudra, beautifully wrapped in saree and bejeweled with ornaments.
- The whole graven image is supported with a pedestal of temple design, demonstrating the competent carving of artisans exclusively.

The symbol of Shakti; Maa Durga

- "Du" means difficult and "Ga" means to cross over, thus Durga means a fort difficult to cut across. It symbolizes protection.
- An asura named Mahishashura, procured the boon of unbeatable from Lord Bramha, that he will not be killed by any man, god, or animal.

- The unassailability made him so arrogant that he set out to conquer all three worlds. To which all Devatas solicit to the trinity to save them from his cruelty.
- This induces the emanation of Goddess Durga, who incarnate by embodying the collective energy of Lord Bramha, Vishnu, Mahesh, along with other gods.
- In a 10 day-long fight with the demon, she finally bumps off him with her trident, that day of her victory is celebrated as Vijaya Dashami.

Elevate your aesthetic with the following ideas:

- Following Vaastu, the Southeast is the appropriate zone to place the holy idol.
- You can display the sculpt using a pedestal stand to add charm to a well-manicured front lawn/yard/landscaping.
- The unused corner of an open hallway/gallery/foyer of office, home, or hotel will be an effective way to grab the attention of every passer-by.
- For puja in the temple of home or any shrine, the idol can be used.
- If you place the sculpt on the entryway of your institute/hotel/ factory, it will look stunning on its own.
- What is more auspicious than to gift a religious idol to your family and friends.

Lagniappe of keeping the revered statue of Maa Durga:

- Maa Durga blesses his devotee to overcome poverty, misery, and bad influences.
- Financial success, prosperity in both personal and professional life can be achieved with the grace of Goddess Durga.
- Get rid of planetary effects (bad) of your horoscope with her grace.

Follow the instruction manded below:

- Sandstone is a material that is resistant to all weather and is hard-wearing.
 - The process of cleaning begins with bathing the sculpt with a bucket of water, or you can make use of a hose spray, be gentle while spraying.
 - Once the statue douses, move with the second step by disengaging grime or any biological growth with a soft cloth or brush.
 - Once done with scrubbing now wipe the home garden statue with a kitchen towel or dry cloth.

Description of the home garden statue:

- The above statue depicts "Goddess Durga" the personification of beauty, strength, morality & intelligence.
- Sitting on a lion, holding disparate weapons in her multiple hands, and adorned with finery makes the sculpt bewitching.
- The effigy is gracefully perched on a base, manifesting the artistry of the craftsman delicately.

How Goddess Durga emerged from the mighty Gods:

- Her birth was to kill a demon named Mahishashura who whip up devastation to all the living beings in the world, with the invincible boon he got from Lord Bramha by gratifying him with his penance.
- So, Lord Vishnu, Shiva, Bramha, and other gods integrated and transform their power into a divine appearance of a woman who is powerful enough to overwhelm the demon.

- The battle carried away for nine long days between Maa Durga and Mahishasura, on the tenth day, she finally transfix him with her Trishul.
- The nine-day long festival is celebrated as Navami and the tenth was celebrated as "Vijay Dashami" to honor the victory of Goddess Durga over the demon.

Redo the ambiance of your outdoorsy with the home garden statue:

- Complement your garden statue with an arbor surrounded by bushes and hedges, considering the color must be contrasted, which will beautify the grace of the look.
- A floral arrangement, stone, or gravel around the statue will be more eye-catching.
- If you want to place it near any pond or pool, place it along walkways or next to the water feature.

Bring love and peace within by keeping the sacred idol:

- Maa Durga protects its worshiper from the evil eye, black magic, and negative influences.
- She helps to overcome misery and obstacles from her devotee's life.
- The worshiper will be blessed with material wealth, prosperity, and success in both personal and professional life.

How and when to clean home garden statue:

- The durability and incredible strength make the Black stone distinguish, making them ideal for all-purpose(indoor & outdoor) weather-resistance statues.
 - When mother nature kisses them with rain and dirt, your statue desperately needs a thorough cleaning.
 - Wash the statue with a hose spray, be gentle with the pressure. Once the statue is soaked thoroughly, you can remove the dirt and grime with a scrubbing brush.
 - The last step is followed by wiping the sculpture with a soft cloth/towel and letting to dry.

The earthy color and distressed finish of the "Astabhuja Maa Durga statue" is the perfect decor piece for any interior theme, objectifying a classic religious statement, allowing you to arrange however you like. Material: Sandstone / Redstone Dimension (HWL): 12 x 8 x 4 inch Position: Sitting Height: 1 ft Some features featuring the notable statue:

- The above statue is the effigy of "Maa Durga", who is associated with motherhood, protection, strength, and war.
- A motherly figure is usually depicted riding a lion, with eight arms each carrying different weapons.
- Stone carving is a job, done with proficient hands to give a formless rock to a lifelike effigy, or whatever finish is required. As the above work of art is a creation by the adroitness of artisans of Odisha.

Jagadamba: Mother of the universe

- The word Durga is formed from two words "Dur" & "Gam", which means a fort that is difficult to pass through. Goddess Durga protects the world just like a fort protects its empire.

- She emerged only to kill a demon named Mahishashura who causes chaos in all three worlds with the immortal power he got from Lord Bramha.
- Lord Vishnu, Shiva, Bramha, and other gods united and transformed their energy into a shape of women of divine appearance which is powerful enough to vanquish the demon.
- With a nine-day long battle carried away between them and the tenth day, she flung her trident which dropped the demon dead at her feet.
- The nine-day long festival is celebrated as Navami and the tenth was Vijay Dashami to rejoice in the win of good over evil.

Complement your ambiance with the weathered sculpture:

- Vaastu recommends the southeast corner for the placement of the Goddess Durga's idol at home/office.
- To show off the art piece to its full potential, place it on a heightened table in your entryway/foyer/hallway/gallery.
- You can put it on the bookshelf or the accent shelving unit, this allows everyone to admire it more easily.
- Go one step further to showcase it on a floating shelf above your sofa, windowed cabinet, or patio using your imagination.
- "Giving begins at home and extends beyond the home" with the above decorative stone exchange message of love, motherhood, and trust among your friends and families.

Seek the blessing of Maa Durga by keeping the sacred idol:

- Goddess Durga alleviates the malicious effects of the mercury planet of your horoscope.
- Her worshiper always bestowed with peace, prosperity, and material wealth.
- Lead a completely happy and healthy life with her grace and blessing.

Ensure your artwork retain their beauty with proper care:

- Sculpture made out of Sandstone provides timeless benefits like weather-resistant, slip-resistant, and durability.
 - Start with the gentlest cleaning method of wiping the exterior, with a clean dry cloth to remove the dust and dirt.
 - A monthly cleaning will keep the decorative stone looking at its best.
