Product Description

Lord Krishna Nauka Vihar Pattachitra Canvas Painting. Create an expressively approachable way of displaying art with its characters. A spiritual journey through eyes is just beautiful to lure anyone.

Material: Canvas

Dimension(HW): 11 x 15 inch

Weight: 0.1 kg

Pattachitra means cloth painting an aged and popular art of Odisha. Which displays pictorial stories and live events from Hindu mythology.

The colors used in the painting are purely made from natural ingredients. The white color extract from seashells was powdered soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from the green leaf and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. 120 other colors are made by using these five main colors. Every color has its own significance, as the white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonishment in yellow, The hair of the mouse and Buffalo used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Krishna's favorite thing is playing his flute, and whenever he plays his flute the Gopikas of Vrindavan joins him enjoying, dancing, and his divine love Radha was lost in his eyes of beloved. It is said that in the summer season Lord Krishna with his Beloved love Radha and other Gopikas, sail through the Yamuna river in Nauka(boat) and enjoy the breeze.

Gopis are those saints and sages who penance for years to become devotees of Lord Krishna, in incarnation. Gopis are spellbound in joy whenever they see Lord Krishna playing the flute. Their expression of love towards him is like a devotee towards his God. Bhakti is more blissful than liberation.

The above picture depicts the wonderful portrayal of that majestic moment of Lord Krishna Nauka Vihar. Their names can not be taken without each other, perfect definition of love via soul is represented in the picture. Each character is defined with clear dark lines, characters apparel, and fashion sense with detailed work.

Material: Canvas cloth

Dimension(HW): 19 x 13 inch

Weight: 0.1 kg

Patta means cloth, Chitra means painting, thus painting on a piece of cloth is known as Pattachitra. Which is the age-old art of Odisha. Depicting stories and events of Hindu deities with various motifs, designs, and patterns.

The sourcing and application of colors and materials are purely natural. Five colors white, red, yellow, green, black, known as Pancha Tatwa been used to color the Picture. The white color gets by soaking, drying, and churning seashell, The red extract from a stone named Hingula, a local stone Haritlal used for yellow, Green used from leaves and green stones, and black is obtained from lamp soot, or either from burning coconut shell. 120 more colors are used by mixing of the Pancha Tatwa color. The hair of, mouse, buffalo, and Keya roots are used to make the brush for the painting. And tied to a bamboo stick for the brush handle. The flower border on the painting makes it more notable.

Every day cowherds girls used to go to the banks of Yamuna to take a bath. They assemble together holding each other's hands, singing, and bathing, deep in the water. Before going into the water they put their clothes near. Noticing bathing in the river fully naked is disrespectful, Lord Krishna decided to teach them a lesson, so that they may not repeat the mistake. Krishna stole the clothes of the Gopis and told them to come out from the river in the same way as they took bath.

When Gopis urges Lord Krishna to return their clothes back Lord told them that they disrespect and committed an offense by bathing without clothes in the Yamuna. He asked them to touch their forehead with folded palms and bow down before the god of Yamuna, Varunadeva. Gopis immediately abided by his order without giving a second thought which makes Lord Krishna the most obedient and greatest lover of him.

Everything Lord did was with a purpose behind it. Lord Krishna stole clothes, to set them free from the sin they committed. Like he stole butter from the household because the butter was direct went to Knasa, and children were starving. To give nutrition to every child, he stole and have them with his friends.

The traditional Pattachitra art is said to be one of the oldest art originated from the state Odisha. Patta men's cloth, Chitra means picture. carries various descriptions about mythology, religious events, and tales with motifs, design, and dye natural colors.

The colors used in the painting are made from natural ingredients. The white color extract from seashells was powdered soaked to make the white paste. Green is made from the green leaf and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Khandaneela stone was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. 120 other colors are made by using these five main colors.

Kansa a ruthless king of Mathura, imprisoned his sister and brother-in-law when he awarded that the eighth child of them would be the reason of his quietus. He killed all the seven infants right after their birth but fate changed when the eighth child Lord Krishna born, that night a divine voice-guided Vasudev (father of Lord Krishna) on the route to Gokul the palace of king Nanda. All gates of the prison opened miraculously, all guards fall asleep, he crossed the holy river the Yamuna, which split its path to Vasudev to walk through, with a heavy storm approaching, protected by a seven head snake with his hood on Vasudeva carrying the infant on a rattan basket on his head. He exchanged Lord Krishna with the daughter of Nanda and Yashoda born on the same night and get back to the prison.

Lord Krishna was brought up in Gokul with his elder brother Balaram, who also an offering of Rohini and Vasudeva. From childhood both the brothers accompanied each other in every stage of their life. With his preternatural, and mischievous acts Lord Krishna was the apple of the eyes of people in Gokul. When Krishna's deeds spread far, and Kansa heard about the miraculous child he was sure that it was the eighth child of Devaki and Vasudeva he planned to kill him. He sent an old minister named Ankura to Gokul to invite Krishna to Mathura. Krishna along with Balarama left for Gokul. They killed many warriors and Kansa and freed the citizen and his parents from the cruelty of Kansa.

The above painting illustrates the event of both the brothers going Mathura with Ankura. The painting is so eye-catching with the use of vivid colors. The powerful and beautiful picture looks adorable on the wall of the office or home, where ever you want to display it.

Lord Krishna is known to be the savior, and also helpful from the ill effects of planet Ketu. Also, satisfy various other desires of personal and professional life.

Description: Dancing Ganesha Tasar painting 14 inches. An elegant feel, like black and white, gives a refinement look on the wall. A charming illustration with the power of tranquility.

Material: Tasar silk

Dimension(HW): 14x10 inch

Pattachitra art is an ancient art found in Odisha. It is a cloth-based scroll painting. Narrating mythological stories and folk tales, by various designs, patterns, and motifs.

The process involves concocting the canvas, by coating, it with stone powder and gum made out of tamarind seeds. Making it ready to receive the color. It is an age-old tradition to complete the border first. Colors and materials are obtained from natural ingredients. Five colors white, red, yellow, green, black, known as Pancha Tatwa been used to color the Picture. The white color is obtained by soaking, drying, and churning seashell, The red color is extracted from a stone named Hingula, Haritlal a local stone used for yellow, Green is procured from leaves and green stones, and black is from lamp soot, or either from burning coconut shell. 120 more colors are used by mixing of the Pancha Tatwa. The hair of, mouse, buffalo, and Keya roots are used to make the brush of Pattachitra. Then do up a bamboo stick for the brush handle. After completion of the painting, the canvas is put on a charcoal fire and lacquer is applied to the surface, making it more durable.

The birth of Lord Ganesha unfolded when goddess Parvati took a bath and prohibit to keep anyone from disturbing her, she made a child out of the dirt from her body and gave it to life, and ask the boy to be a guard while she bathes, meanwhile Lord Shiva arrived and wanted to barge at goddess Parvati, the child Ganesha barred him from that which makes Lord Shiva so angry and he cuts off the child's head. Later with the request of goddess Parvati, Lord Shiva restored the life by placing an elephant calf on the boy's body and thus Lord Ganesha was created.

Every little peculiarity has a deep spiritual significance of Lord Ganesha. The elephant head symbolizes one becomes what he thinks, learn to utilize full potential. smallmouth below the trunk signifies talk less work more. The large stomach keeps the infinite universe tied up with (kundalini) a serpent. His tiny eyes depict to stay focused on your goal. His large ears are a symbol of a good listener. His broken tusk stands for utilizing your present resources of what you have and never regret over the sacrifices you made. His Anusha used to proceed always on the righteous path, the paasa (noose) is used to bind the devotee to the truth and capture all obstacles. With axe Lord Ganesha repel the obstacle of his devotee, while the ladoo is rewarded with a decent life. The god's statue's left leg is bent and folded, while the right leg is resting on the ground, it represents the balance between spiritual and material life.

The rats beneath his foot side holding a ladoo looking up at him, but not ingesting the ladoos without his permission is a clear symbol of how our desires are under our control if we wish to. His broken tusk is a symbol of nonduality.

The god of, wisdom, fortune, and prosperity is perfect not only as for gift option but also in the everyday life of one. So apart from keeping ideal statues keep a wall hanging too to rip the benefit of Lord Ganesha.

Care: Wipe down the canvas with a soft cloth.

After completion of the painting, the canvas is carried over a charcoal fire and lacquer is applied to the surface.

Nritya Ganapati or Dancing Ganesha is a representation of an amusing and happy form of the Ganesha god. One foot in the ground the other slightly raised during the dance. Nritya Ganapati is also shown as a form of dilettante of fine arts. He bestows devotees with art and dexterity.

The dancing Ganesha demonstrates cosmic changes and creation. He is a symbol of endurance against ill-fortune. The art is inherited by him from his parents as we all know Lord Shiva dance Tandava and Goddess Parvati dances to lasya, combining them wonderfully. Ganesha has been appointed as the chief by Lord Shiva. "Gana" means people, "Isha" means lord when we combined them together, they stand for Ganesha or Ganapati both refer to the chief of people. The five organs of environmental stimuli and five organs of action are the "Ganas" (desire, thoughts, instinct) to which the mind is the master. The ten senses (mind and intellect) constitute the ganas.

The mouse is a symbol of inner desires, which are never satisfied, Lord Ganesha controls the mouse which means a sensible person should have control over his senses and desire which will not lead him to destroy the good in him.

Ganesha is widely used as a gifting option on many auspicious occasions, so this time don't forget to gift your dear one with this painting as a unique way of wishing them good fortune instead of any common Lord statue or idol.

Description: Colorful Lord Krishna Story Pattachitra Painting. Endless décor possibility throughout the home. Every section rendered different stories which amplify its value.

Material: Canvas Dimension(HW): 25x40 inch Weight: 0.2 kg The place rich in art and culture, Odisha. Pattachitra is one of the gems from the basket of art from Odisha. It illustrates mythological and folk tales through the intricate motifs, and patterns. The following Painting depicts the whole life events of Lord Krishna. Lord Krishna was born to king Vasudev and his mother Devaki, in jail. They were imprisoned by Devaki's own brother Kansa who was warned by an astrologer that he may get killed by the child of his sister, so he imprison them and killed every child born to them. But king Vasudeva carried Lord Krishna after birth to Nanda's house at Gokul through the Yamuna river, by carrying him on his head with a rattan basket while heavy storm approached, protected by a seven head serpent hood over his head from the rain.

The Pattachitra has many stories like to unfold through the picture like killing female demon Putana who was sent by Kansa to kill the infant, His dance on Kaaliya Naag in river Yamuna, stealing butter, in childhood famous as Makhan chor, lifting the Govardhan Hill, to safeguard people and livestock from the storm, his Viswaroopa, stealing clothes from the Gopis from the tree, Krishna playing in the village, killing of demon Kesi. The center part of the painting showcase the undying selfless love and devotion of Lord Krishna and Radha. A message of love blossoms when liberated. The painting shows both of them meeting in the Vrindavan when Lord Krishna plays flute melodiously every day by the lakeside. The painting has so much to delineate around, the Dasavatara of Lord Vishnu. Masya, Kurma, Varaha, Narsimha, Vamana, Parshurama, Rama, Balarama, Krishna, Kalki. Avatar means incarnation Lord Vishnu has ten incarnations in different yuga (time period). The first yuga is called the Satya yuga where the four avatars appeared. In the second yuga called the Treta Yuga where three avatars appeared. The third is Dwapara where two appeared and the last is Kali Yuga. This painting is a true reflection of the life of Lord Krishna with benediction. Ideal to décor at any wall of, home, temple, hallway, office, the color combination blend with a wall of light-colored background.

Care: The painting should dust with the help of a soft cloth.
