Product Description

Material: Canvas Dimension(W:H:L): 18:12 Weight: 0.1 kg Description: Lord Narasimha Killing Hiranyakasyap Painting. Make a wide-reaching righteousness impact on the wall of your home or office. The brilliant unfolding of mythological stories through the art, adding expression to every detail. Pattachitra means, painting on canvas. Patta means Canvas, Chitra means Painting. It narrates stories and events from the life of Hindu deities. An ancient form of art originated from the state of Odisha. The procuring and application of colors and materials are out and out natural. Five colors white, red, yellow, green, black, known as Pancha Tatwa, are used to color Pattachitra. The white color bag by soaking, drying, and churning seashell. The red gets from a stone named Hingula, a local stone Haritlal is used for yellow, Green is obtained from leaves and green stones, and black is extracted from lamp soot, or either from burning coconut shell. 120 more colors are used by mixing of the Pancha Tatwa. The hair of, mouse, buffalo, and Keya roots are used to make the brush. It is then tied to a bamboo stick as a handle. The flower border on the painting makes it well thought of. Lord Vishnu took birth on earth in many forms whenever there is a need for restoration of Dharma, and balance the righteousness. Lord Narasimha is the fourth incarnation of Lord Vishnu among his ten Avatars on earth. To save his ardent devotee Prahlada from the torture of his ruthless father Hiranyakasyap. Hiranyakasyap has obtained a boon from Lord Bramha that he wouldn't get killed by any human or animal, neither in day or night, and no weapon can kill him. This boon made him secure that he started to trouble and terrorize both people from earth and the three Lokas. On the other hand, his son Prahlada was a wholehearted devotee of Lord Vishnu, which made him more furious at him, to which he tried to kill him, and tried several ways like mangling him underfoot by elephant, poisoned, starved, burn, throwing into well, one unsuccessful attempt after another, but couldn't succeed because Lord Vishnu was protecting his devotee. But Pralhadas claims of omnipresent of his Lord made him so angry so he went up and hit a pillar with his mace asking if his Lord "Vishnu in it". To his surprise, the pillar cracked and a half man half lion appeared in the form of Narasimha. Lord Narsimha then dragged Hiranyakasyap and put him on his thigh, ripping his belly with his nails in the evening time. Lord Narasimha made Prahlada the king, and instruct him to follow ethics and good conduct and disappeared. Lord Narasimha has seen with four arms, holding conch and Chakra in upper hands and lower hands seen tearing apart the demon, with his nails. His devotee Prahlada is seen standing beside him by joining his hands in salutation. The picture signifies the path of righteousness, by not harming anyone. The victory of good over evil. Lord Narasimha protects his devotee from mishaps and misfortune. You can use it on any wall whether office, home or shop. Care: Use a soft cotton cloth to wipe down the surface of the canvas.

Product Description

Description: Colorful Lord Krishna Story Pattachitra Painting. Endless décor possibility throughout the home. Every section rendered different stories which amplify its value.

Material: Canvas Dimension(HW): 25x40 inch Weight: 0.2 kg The place rich in art and culture, Odisha. Pattachitra is one of the gems from the basket of art from Odisha. It illustrates mythological and folk tales through the intricate motifs, and patterns. The following Painting depicts the whole life events of Lord Krishna. Lord Krishna was born to king Vasudev and his mother Devaki, in jail. They were imprisoned by Devaki's own brother Kansa who was warned by an astrologer that he may get killed by the child of his sister, so he imprison them and killed every child born to them. But king Vasudeva carried Lord Krishna after birth to Nanda's house at Gokul through the Yamuna river, by carrying him on his head with a rattan basket while heavy storm approached, protected by a seven head serpent hood over his head from the rain. The Pattachitra has many stories like to unfold through the picture like killing female demon Putana who was sent by Kansa to kill the infant, His dance on Kaaliya Naag in river Yamuna, stealing butter, in childhood famous as Makhan chor, lifting the Govardhan Hill, to safeguard people and livestock from the storm, his Viswaroopa, stealing clothes from the Gopis from the tree, Krishna playing in the village, killing of demon Kesi. The center part of the painting showcase the undying selfless love and devotion of Lord Krishna and Radha. A message of love blossoms when liberated. The painting shows both of them meeting in the Vrindavan when Lord Krishna plays flute melodiously every day by the lakeside. The painting has so much to delineate around, the Dasavatara of Lord Vishnu. Masya, Kurma, Varaha, Narsimha, Vamana,

Parshurama, Rama, Balarama, Krishna, Kalki. Avatar means incarnation Lord Vishnu has ten incarnations in different yuga (time period). The first yuga is called the Satya yuga where the four avatars appeared. In the second yuga called the Treta Yuga where three avatars appeared. The third is Dwapara where two appeared and the last is Kali Yuga. This painting is a true reflection of the life of Lord Krishna with benediction. Ideal to décor at any wall of, home, temple, hallway, office, the color combination blend with a wall of light-colored background.

Care: The painting should dust with the help of a soft cloth.
