The founder of Buddhism. Lord Buddha means " a person who is awake". The awake here means wakening up to reality. Born into a royal family, upbrought with all lavish and luxury, married and had a son, until the age of twenty-nine he was unwitting of bitter facts of worldly affairs. One day he went to Kapilavastu, on the way he saw an old person, a sick man, and a corpse taken to the cremation ground each for the first time in his life. Which disturbed him to the core, while returning he also encountered a sage who walking in the street with a peaceful expression on his face. These experiences changed his looking into life, Lord Buddha realized that no wealth or pleasure will protect him from facing the universal suffering of a human face. So he left his lavish life to find a way to overcome the suffering "Dukha".

For six long years, he followed many, teachers, severe starvation, self-deprivation, yoga practice, getting no result from all his practices so he finally found the middle way, by avoiding the extremes. He sat beneath a banyan tree, with deep meditation and concentration he attain enlightenment. In this pose, Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus platform with both legs folded, in the Vajrasan pose. The lotus signifies his ability to grow even in dirty water likewise every human has the potential to overcome suffering or any difficulty. Both hands are held on the lap upon each other. Eyes are completely closed in deep concentration. The Meditation form is widely known as the Amitabha mudra, which "means the boundless light". This form generally represents the focus concentration. Beneficial for people seeking peace and calm in their life, also helpful in improving meditation skills. You can consider the statue to be a spiritual gift for your loved ones. Placement: Buddha meditate while the sun rises so always keep him facing the east, where the sun rises. You can be considered placing the Buddha statue in the northeast or Southwest sector, as it activates the earth element. You can opt to place it in Living, prayer, serenity, library, office, or any quiet corner of the house. Care: The advantage of pink stone is it is a nonporous material. Wipe the surface with a dry cloth or broom is enough to maintain the glossiness.

Product Description

Small Sitting Namaste Buddha Idol in Pink Soft Stone 4 inch. A simple alternative to Buddha's other traditional postures. Wide-reaching positive impact where ever you place it.

Material: Soapstone/Pinkstone Dimension(HWL): 4 x 2.5 x 1.5 Position: Sitting Buddha means "the awaken one" here awaken means the awakened mind, there are seven qualities that led us to an awakened mind, these are mindfulness, investigation, energy, joy, tranquility, concentration, equanimity. With these qualities, we can see things as they are and not what we imagine them to be. Lord Buddha was born as a prince of the Shakya tribe, named Siddhartha Gautama. Raised and brought up with all opulence and luxury in his palace one can fantasy over, unaware of misery, sorrow, and suffering of human faces in the outside world. Married and had a son. One day Gautama ventured out of his palace, he saw three definite aspects of life each for the first time, he saw an old man, a sick man, a corpse. This scene shook him to the core, he perceived that these are inevitable fates of humans, no one can avoid. And then he saw a holy monk walking with peace and serenity in his face All these made him find a way to overcome the universal suffering. He decamps his spiritual quest by leaving the lavish life behind. For six long years, he followed many ascetic, extreme self-denial, self-deprivation, and self-mortification, even if following the extreme asceticism he couldn't find the answer to his quest. So he abandoned the extremes life nor return to the luxury life instead and discover the middle way, (like neither luxury nor poverty). He sat beneath a Bodhi tree, in deep meditation, and finally achieved enlightenment. The Namaste Buddha/Anjali Buddha widely known as praying Buddha is seen sitting on a lotus pedestal in a double lotus pose known as the Vajrasan pose. The Anjali mudra is expressed with both hands joining together near the chest by pressing the palms of the hands together. The two hands symbolize two inseparable forms of existence, spiritual and material. When it performs near the heart it represents the purity of mind body and speech. With the gesture of namaste Buddha, one can connect to deep peace and serenity. A powerful decor as well as a gift option for your dear ones. Placement: It is recommended to place the Anjali mudra statue at the main entrance, living room, or any other place to welcome positive energy. Also ideal for puja room and altar. Care: The nonporous material doesn't need much care, gently wiping the surface with a cloth is enough to keep the beauty of the statue.

Buddha means "a person who is awake", awake here means waken of reality. He is the founder of Buddhism. Born in a royal family raised in all luxury and opulence Lord Buddha was unaware of any bitter truth of outside world suffering until the age of 29. He was married and had a son. Lord Buddha one day on his way to Kapila Vastu when he encountered three aspects of life an old man, a sick, and the dead. these scenes make him disturbed as he realized that these are the universal fates of all humans where no one can escape. No wealth or pleasure will prevent him from also getting old, sick, and dead. He also saw a holy sage who was walking on the road, even after renouncing the pleasure of the world, he was looking very calm and peaceful from his face. This made Buddha find a solution to the suffering, human face. He gave up his lavish princely life and left to search for the quest. For six years he has adopted many practices, extreme starvation, self-deprivation but found no result, he finally sat beneath a Bodhi tree near Bodh Gaya where he achieve enlightenment. He spent the rest of his life teaching others about the path to achieving the spiritual stage as him. During the meditation, their heavy rainfall came and Lord Buddha was about to sweep away in the floodwater, there is when a seven head snake saw this and wrapped around him his coil and uplifted him from the flood, and spread the hood over the head of Lord Buddha to protect him. The above statue depicts the moment where the seven-headed snake was in his protection, Lord Buddha is seen sitting in the coil of the serpent in a double lotus pose. Both hands are held near the chest forming a circle with the thumb and index of both hands. The circle represents the wheel of Dharma. A dharma wheel has three basic parts, the hub, the rim, and the spokes.

- Hub: Moral discipline.
- Rim: Meditative concentration and mindfulness.
- Spokes: If a wheel has four spokes it represents the four noble truths and if the wheel has eight spokes it represents the eightfold part.

This form of Buddha is also known as Dharmachakra Buddha. which means the wheel of Dharma. Lord Buddha's first sermon was based on the four noble truths and the eightfold part. Beneficial for people seeking academic and spiritual growth in their life. As it represents wisdom and intellectual it improves the peacefulness and calmness in the surrounding. It can be a perfect gifting option for your dear ones. Placement: Northeast or southwest is favorable to place teaching Buddha statue. Product Description

Soap Stone Sitting Teaching Buddha Statue 8 inch, the piece is an endless placement option throughout the home. Feature the Buddha sitting on a lotus platform, with an incredible white finish. Signifying wisdom, and fulfillment of destiny. Material: Soapstone/Pink stone Dimension(HWL): 8 x 5 x 2.3 inch Position: Sitting Buddha is means "the awakened one". A man who has wakened fully, a man who discovered to bring off wisdom, empathy, and deliverance from suffering. A crown prince left everything behind in search of enlightenment and spent the life rest teaching others. The statue here depicted his teaching phase, where he delivered his first sermon, in Sarnath. The first sermon presents the recapitulation of suffering and the way to overcome it. It is called the four noble truths.

Those four noble truths are:

1. Suffering
2. Cause of suffering
3. end of suffering
4. the path that leads to the end of suffering

Suffering the "Dukha" or unsatisfactoriness, suffering is three types according to Lord Buddha first suffering from physical and psychological pain. Second, the blissful state, which is not permanent it changes with time, and the third is suffering arising from the failure. Next is the cause of suffering, which arises from our craving for desire, fantasy, and avaricious. End of suffering means the way out of suffering, if we put an end to our desire, ego, and on dukkha then we will get our self free from unsatisfactoriness. And finally, the path that leads to the end of suffering lies in the eighth-most ethical habit known as the eightfold path.

The eight habits include

1. Right understanding
2. Right thought
3. Right speech
4. Right action
5. Right livelihood
6. Right effort
7. Right mindfulness
8. Right concern.

These habits restrain us from lying stealing and committing violent acts, the paths help us to control; our self and not be harmful to others by maintaining social harmony.

Here Buddha is sitting on a lotus platform, with Vajrasana pose, right hand on chest level turned palm out forming a circle with the tip of index and thumb, the left hand resting on the lap of left leg forming the same circle with the finger, palm out. Widely known as Dharmachakra Buddha. The teaching Buddha represents eternal knowledge and enlightenment so keeping a statue of teaching Buddha is favorable for people seeking academic success and spiritual learning.

Placement: Northeast delivers the pious zone of serenity. The Buddha should always face the east to rip more positive results. Care: Keep the statue clean with the help of a cloth or broom will not let the dirt settle on it.
