"Nara" means "human", "Simha" means "lion", Narsimha thus is a man-lion. Yagya Narsimha was an incarnation of Lord Vishnu. Seen in the Agenya chakra, which is Shatkona Swarupa arising out of the union of Shri Narayana and Mahalaxmi, as picture showed above. Under the hood of kundalini sarpa, fringe by Jwalamandala. He appeared for the protection of the Dharma, and the destruction of evil. He carries Bishuns four-arm form. He incarnated to save his devotee Prahlada from his demon father Hiranyakashyapa, he emerge from a pillar and tore up Hiranyakashyapa with his fingernails. Here Lord Jagannath has shown Narayana and Laxmi on his lap. Lord Bishnu took this furious form because Hiranyakashyapa was boon by Lord Bramha that he wouldn't be killed by deva or Asura, Human or Animal, not by any weapon, nor in space or neither on earth, either during the day or in the night. Hiranyakshypa has a son who was an ardent devotee of Lord Vishnu. When asked by his father where the lord is? Lord is everywhere told by his son, hearing this, the evil father smashed a pillar in rage with his mace, the pillar split up and a man-lion emerge from that, he drags Hiranyakshypa, laid him on his lap, and tore him up exactly in the evening. By putting an end to the ruthless demon.

Yoga Narasimha protects his devotee from illness, evil, and enemy. Cure Graha dosh, ward off negative influences of planets. And bestows fearlessness, prosperity, and tranquility. Yoga Narasimha bestows longevity, success and fulfills all desires.

Product Description

Colorful Maa Durga Mahishasur Badha Tasar Painting. A distinctive painting with striking colors, make decorative potential more appealing.

Odisha is the heritage of art and handicrafts. Patachitra is one of the ancient art of the state, display by the rich color of application, motifs, and patterns that portray mythological tales. It refers to a painting done on clothes, mostly on Tassar cloth.

Here the tale of killing Mahisasura by Goddess Durga is portrayed. There is a king named Mahisasura buffalo headed, he was a devotee of Bramha, pleased with his austere penance Lord Bramha grant him a wish to which he asked for immortality, neither killed by man nor animal in the earth to which Bramha granted him that. Mahisasura misuse his power of Immortality and attacked Trilok, and tried to capture Indra Lok along with his army. Not a single Devata defeated him Due to his blessing from Bramha. So they decided to approach Lord Vishnu for help. As per the blessing, no man will defeat him, so Lord Vishnu decided to create a female form to kill the demon king. Bramha, Vishnu, and Mahadev combined all their powers to create Goddess Durga.

Goddess Durga then fought with Mahisasura for fifteen days and stabbed him with her trident on the day of Vijayadashmi. She is the incarnation of Goddess Parvati. The daughter of Himavan, lord of the mountain. She is said to be "Shakti", the power that runs the universe. She protects her devotee from evil power and safeguards them. She is depicted as a warrior, carrying weapons with her eight hands, representing her teachings.

Trident in her right upper arm depicts courage to eliminate the evil qualities. Chakra in right second lower hand represents Dharma, we must do our responsibility and duty. Lotus in the third lower right hand depicts detachment as a lotus do even after growing in dirty water it produces beauty. Sword in the fourth lower hand depicts we should discriminate evil qualities. Conch in the upper left hand represents happiness like we should do our duty in cheerful ways. The club in the second left hand depicts devotion and surrender like Lord Hanuman. The serpent on the third left hand represents a symbol of conscious energy. In the fourth lower hand she crushes down the demon, representing the whipper of evil. She is always seen riding on a tiger or a lion which represents uncontrolled bestial propensity that needs to be under control.

This painting has many perky colors. A strong feminine power to display on your wall. A mythological masterpiece to showcase your décor.

Krishna Biswarupa Pattachitra Painting. Spreading a sense of uncomplicated simplicity with an opalescent effect. A true enticement of your desired wall to decorate.

Material: Pattachitra art

Dimension(HW): 19 x 13 inch

Weight: 0.1 kg

Pattachitra is a traditional painting. One of the oldest and famous arts of Odisha. The colors used in the painting are purely made from natural ingredients. The white color extract from seashells was powdered soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from the green leaf and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. Every color has its own significance, as the white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonishment in yellow, The hair of the mouse and Buffalo used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Lord Krishna, born in jail, raised by his foster parents, left his childhood divine love, and kill his own maternal ruthless uncle to save humanity. He is the supreme example of how to perform your duty by saving the righteous path in life.

The Bishwaroopa has been shown on the day of Shukla Ekadasi when he was preaching Bhagwat Geeta to Arjuna on the battlefield of Kurukshetra. Prior to that he also showed his Biswaroopa in Kurusabha when he went to Hastinapur assembly hall from Pandava side to negotiate peace between Pandava and Kauravas. With a view to ending the enmity and injustice done to Pandava from the Kaurava. But end up within an hostility from Kauravas and outcome the Kurukshetra war. Duryodhana the son of the king of Dhritrarastra tried to imprison Lord Krishna that is when Shri Krishna showed his Bishwaroopa, except Drona, Bhishma, Vidura, and Sanjay no one was blessed to see his divine Roopa in the Sabha(assembly).one need the divine eye side to visualize this Roopa, like in Kurukshetra only Arjuna, Sanjay and Hanuman(who was in the flag of Arjuna above his chariot).

Krishna is known as the god of wealth, love, and prosperity. So placing the picture at the Northeast corner, from east to west, or west to east is invites healthy and positive energy flow.

Material: Canvas

Dimension(HW): 13 x 19 inch

Weight: 0.1 kg

Pattachitra is a traditional and ancient art of Odisha. The painting is done on cloth using natural colors, motifs, patterns, and designs, displaying the stories and events from mythology, god, and goddesses.

The white color extract from seashells was powdered and soaked to make the white paste. The color green is made from green leaves and green stones. Red is made from a local stone called Hingula. Another stone named Khandaneela was used to extract the color blue. The yellow is made from, a stone named Hartal. Black is extracted by burnt coconut shell. These five colors are also called Pancha Tatwa. 120 other colors are made by using these five main colors. Every color has its own significance, as white illustrates Laughter (Hasya), Red stands furious, astonished in yellow. Blue is used to depict Lord Vishnu and Green for Lord Rama. The hair of the mouse and Buffalo was used to make brushes and tied to the end of a bamboo stick. The floral border makes the art astonishingly beautiful.

Radha Krishna has two bodies but one entity that's why his name is uttered in a single breath. Whenever Lord Krishna played his flute, Radha couldn't resist meeting Krishna. They shared eternal love with each other, power of sacrifice, and strength with each other. They are celestial beings. The love and devotion for each other are something that can never be found. They teach us that love does not have any early definition and explanation, it's a supreme union between the human and divine.

The picture above depicts the mystique of love between Radha Krishna surrounded by many Gopikas. Keeping a Radha Krishna painting in your home or office imbues a spirit of devotion, love, sacrifice, and strength. Another take on a splash of hues used in the painting makes it look more bewitching on the wall.

Description: Dancing Ganesha Temple Style Pattachitra Canvas Painting. The remarkable use of art in the picture by using muted colors makes it more embellishing. The heartwarming look make you go through a sense of pure divinity.

Pattachitra the unique scroll painting over cloth is the famous age-old art of Odisha. Depicting various religious and mythological events and stories from Hindu deities. Narrates the stories through various patterns, designs, and motifs.

Preparing the canvas is followed, by coating the cloth with stone powder and gum made out of tamarind seeds. Ready it to receive the paint. It is a tradition of Pattachitra making to complete the border first. The colors and materials used in making the Pattachitra are completely natural. Five colors white, red, yellow, green, black, known as Pancha Tatwa has been used. The white brings out by soaking, drying, and churning seashell, The red color is extracted from a stone named Hingula, stone Haritlal, a local stone used for yellow, Green color pull out from leaves and green stones, and black is obtained from lamp soot, or either from burning coconut shell.120 more colors are used by mixing of the five main colors above color. The hair of, mouse, buffalo, and Keya roots are used, for making the brush for painting. It is then tied to a bamboo stick as a handle for the brush. After completion, the canvas is kept over a charcoal fire and lacquer is applied to the surface. The flower border on the painting makes it more extraordinary

Lord Ganesha is known as the God of beginning. The son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati. Lord Ganesha is the epitome of knowledge and wisdom. Every feature and gesture of him has some spiritual significance. Like in this picture he is seen with a goad in the upper right-hand goad (known as ankusa) which is used on elephants to move faster, signifies Ganesha god direct us to move forward in the righteous path in our life. In the left upper arm holding a noose or paasa which use to control an animal, signifies, Lord Ganesha captures all hardships from the path of his devotee. the rosary in his middle right hand depicts once persuasion of knowledge over spirituality never gets stopped.

With axe in his middle left hand, Lord Ganesha repels the obstacle of his devotee, The broken tusk in his lower right hand illustrates his sacrifice and devotion towards the work one should learn. finally, the sweets in his lower left hand represent a reward for the awakened soul and the right path you moved for. His left leg is slightly bent and folded, while the right leg is resting on the ground, which represents the man from the earth is not entirely from the earth. A mouse is seen on his right side with folding hands facing towards his master. The mouse represents our desires and ego, Lord Ganesha controls the mouse, we must also learn to control our desire and ego for a wise life.

As he was known to be the destroyer of obstacles and bringing fortune, it will be very beneficial to keep at home or office. And can be appreciable as a gift, stands as not an ordinary form of gift among others.

Description: Colorful Dancing Ganesha Pattachitra Canvas Painting is so stunning to behold. Not only will it grab attention, but its vibrant color palettes give your wall a wow-worthy look.

Pattachitra art is a traditional and popular form of art practiced in Odisha. It's an intricate art over a piece of cloth depicting various stories of Hindu deities, through motifs, designs, and unique patterns.

The process involves preparing the canvas, by coating the cloth with stone powder and gum made out of tamarind seeds. Making it ready to receive the paint. It is a tradition to complete the border first. The application of colors and materials is wholly natural. Five colors white, red, yellow, green, black, known as Pancha Tatwa been used to color the Picture. The white color derive by soaking, drying, and churning seashell, The red extract from a stone Hingula, stone Haritlal is used for yellow, Green color elicited from leaves and green stones, and black is obtained from lamp soot, or either from burning coconut shell. 120 more colors are used by mixing of the Pancha Tatwa color. The hair of, mouse, buffalo, and Keya roots are used to make the brush. Tied the hair in a bamboo stick. After completion of the painting, the canvas is held over a charcoal fire and lacquer is applied to the surface. The flower border on the painting makes it more significant.

Lord Ganesha is the son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati. Dancing means Nritya In Sanskrit, as the name suggests Nritya Ganapati is a happy dancer. Represents the joyful and relaxed side of Lord Ganesha among his 32 forms.

His physical feature has different attributes. His big belly contains the whole universe, which he tied up with a serpent the kundalini. His large head represents wisdom and knowledge, his large ears a wise person listens to everything. The two tusks are called Medha(intellect) and Shradha(faith). The broken tusk is called the Medha and the complete one is called the Shradha, which signifies noteworthy focus towards the ultimate goal. The trunk above his small mouth depicts work more and talk less.

Lord Ganesha holds an Ankush in the right upper arm, which signifies to move on the righteous path his devotee, the upper left-hand bearing noose, which is a symbol that he will capture all the odd and hardship from his devotee's pathway. With axe Lord Ganesha repel the obstacle of his devotee, the rosary in his hand depicts once persuasion of knowledge over spirituality never gets stopped. The broken tusk illustrates his sacrifice and devotion towards his work one should learn from. He dances to the combination of Tandava and Lasya inherited both from his father Lord Shiva and mother Goddess Parvati. With one foot on the ground and another is slightly bent towards the knee represents that a wise person is from earth but not entirely of this earth. A rat is on one side looking at him, with a humble eye define the desire and ego has to be under control, otherwise, it will distract and destroy the inner goodness.

Usually many gift idols and statues to dear ones as a gift, so considering a Pattachitra as a gift will be a great choice which makes your statement a unique one among others. As he is the bestower of prosperity and wealth, so keeping one at home or office, will be beneficial in any way.
