Buddha means "the awaken one" here awaken means the awakened mind, seven qualities that led us to an awakened mind, these are mindfulness, investigation, energy, joy, tranquility, concentration, equanimity. With these qualities, we can see things as they are and not what we imagine them to be. Siddhartha Gautama son of Shudhodana king of the Shakya tribe, was Raised and brought up with all opulence and luxury in his palace one can fantasy over, unaware of misery, sorrow, and suffering of human faces in the outside world. Married and had a son. One day Gautama ventured out of his palace, he saw three definite aspects of life each for the first time, he saw an old man, a sick man, a corpse. This scene shook him to the core, he perceived that these are inevitable fates of humans, no one can avoid. And then he saw a holy monk walking with peace and serenity in his face. All these experiences made him find a way to overcome the definite universal suffering. He left the luxury and royal life and journey to the spiritual quest at 29. For the next six long years, he followed many ascetic, extreme self-denial, self-deprivation, and self-mortification, even if following the extreme asceticism he couldn't find the answer to his quest. So he abandoned the extremes life nor return to the luxury life instead and discover the middle way, (like neither luxury nor poverty). He sat beneath a Bodhi tree, in deep meditation, and finally achieved enlightenment. Then on he is known as the Buddha. And spent the rest of his life teaching others about his discovery and path to achieve it. He gave his first sermon at Sarnath. Lord Buddha has preached for over forty-five years traveling from place to place. He took his last breath in Kushinagar, His last words were "Be your own light". The above statue here defines the thinking or resting Buddha, on a lotus platform, tilted his head on his knee. eyes are completely closed. It represents the restfulness and serenity gained through meditation. Keeping a resting Buddha brings peace, tranquility, and harmony into life. It speeds positive and soothing energy around the space. Placement: Enhance the decoration of your home or garden with this graceful Buddha statue. Put him facing east. The statue can be used in garden decoration, fountain decoration, swimming pool decoration, landscaping design, interior designing, outdoor or home decoration too. Care: Use cotton or a broom to wipe the surface.

The long earlobes represent his ability to hear the suffering of the world and signify compassion and wisdom. The smirk smile which he always carries on his face represents the mind that is free of suffering and understanding of the universe. His head the most important part of the body itself represents his characteristics. The head is the representation of the intellect and generosity of knowledge he attained by being an awakened one. Inner peace is the way to bring happiness into life, in this hectic lifestyle it is difficult to possess. So keeping a symbol of placidity and calmness like a Buddha head statue will help to improve the positive vibes into life. For academic purposes consider it to place in the kids and study room by facing him to the east will rip more benefits. Placement: If you have a balcony garden then create a space among the flower pots to statue him. Otherwise, you can place him on the console of your living or corridor with a few more figurines. Your sideboard will also be a useful place to statue him between two similar patterned lamps. A beautiful gifting option to consider for your dear ones. Care: Pink stone is a nonporous material, which does not need much attention for cleaning, you can simply dust the surface with a cloth or brush enough to ward off the dust.

About Lord Buddha: Born as a prince, until the age of twenty-nine, raised with wealth and luxury. His path of life changes when he encountered the universal truth of suffering the "Dukha" of life. He realized the truth, that his wealth cannot save him from facing the suffering of getting old, falling sick, and death. There is when he left all the luxury and walk away in searching for a way to evade the suffering. Which he finally discovered six years later after attaining enlightenment. He spent the remaining life teaching others to achieve the path of enlightenment. Lord Buddha has been achieved the supreme state of percipience, and erudition. He gave his first sermon in Sarnath, which includes the four noble truths and the eight-fold path. About this soapstone masterpiece: Like other differential postures of Lord Buddha from sitting to reclining, his head always depicts the same feature in all postures. The head is also filled with many, aspects of his life. The bumpy head depicts the knowledge and insight he attains after enlightenment. The dot on his forehead refers as the third eye represents his ability to see beyond the materialistic and physical world. His semi-closed eyes can see the inner as well as the outer self. His lengthened earlobes illustrated his ability to hear of suffering and a better understanding by responding it to. His lips which are always depicted with a smirk smile represent the freedom from the chain of suffering as well as the real understanding of the universe. His head is the iconic representation of his characteristic. It displays the ocean of knowledge and wisdom he possesses being the awakened one. Happiness comes from inner peace, but it is difficult to earn in this hectic time lifestyle. Keeping the head of Lord Buddha bust, which itself is the epitome of peace and compassion will amplify the positive energy into life. Placing him to the east, in the kids' or study room will be beneficial for academic growth. Placement - An architect recommendation: Create a space in the garden balcony, among the flower pots. Or put him on the console table with a few other figurines. You can opt to place it in the middle of a sideboard between two lamps will add more adornment to your decor. The best gifting option for your dear one on their special occasion. Care: Pinkstone materials are widely appreciated for their nonporous nature, so cleaning these statues is extremely easy to use a cloth or broom to dust the surface.

For the next six years, he follows many tea Heightchers' instructions, yogi practices, got into self-mortification, self-deprivation but did not find any specific solution to his quest. That is when he decided to find a middle path instead of going any extreme. He finally sat under a fig tree in deep meditation and attain enlightenment. From then he is known as Lord Buddha. He spent all his life teaching others. He spent forty-five years teaching others by traveling from place to place. and took his last breath at Kushinagar. Buddhas statue always has different postures, hand gestures which have many spiritual meanings but the head is always the same. Buddha head holds the secret of enlightenment, knowledge, and wisdom. The head always demonstrates placidity and poise. In his prince hood, he used to the topknot. He shaved his hair off for the spiritual quest. A shaved head is a symbol of getting rid of illusion and ignorance. But his head is always portrayed with ringlet curls. Those ringlets are not short hair but the 108 died snails. In his meditation days, Lord Buddha was in deep meditation even after he was under the tree the rays of the sun was directed towards his bald head, at that very moment, a snail was making his way around seeing Buddhas states and realized that this will make him distracted and lose focus on his concentration due to the sun rays, the way up to his head and sat there. Other snails were also the first one and end of the day when Buddha stood from the meditation he realized he was caped of 108 snails, who had given their lives to make a safe focus free environment so that Buddha reach the path to enlightenment. So they are always displayed in his head to remind us about their sacrifice. His elongated ears remind us that once he was a prince who wears heavy jewelry but gave up all on divinity and mankind. His smiling lips depict despite all suffering, he has higher wisdom and understanding of the universe. The circular dot on his forehead resembles the third eye, he can see beyond the physical and materialistic arena. Keeping a Buddha head big size in the space evokes peaceful and harmonious energy in the atmosphere. It amplifies the calmness within us. Placement: Keep Large Buddha Head Statue in garden to achieve success. Care: Use a cotton cloth or a broom for the dusting
