Product Description

An eco-friendly hand-crafted & hand-finished classic sleek homey garden outdoor lamp post allows the light to dance through its cutout windows. Material: Teakwood stone Statue Dimension(HWL): 54 x 12 x 12 inch Height: 4.5 ft Discourse:

- A beautiful teak wood stone lamppost sculpture is described here.
- A sleek curated piece of art, standing over a plinth. The pedestal has a light fixture house atop it.
- The light fixture house is where you can insert your light bulb, with a design carved around it where the light can disperse easily.

Illumination ideas for garden landscaping:

- Incorporate lamps along the pathway and walkway of the garden, park, or lawn.
- Rock gardens with sidewalk edges, also look amazing beside the lampposts.
- Flowery plants and bold flowers complement the base of the lamp and make it the center of attraction.

- Incorporate it along the driveway to make the path illuminated.
- For a unique look, don't hesitate to plant the lamppost on the lounge, patio, or deck.
- Two lampposts by the entryway on each side of your home, park, or restaurant will distribute light nearby in a gentle way.
- If your garden has a pond, pool, or fountain then add a lamp on the pathway, or walkway beside it, which reflects on the water and will create a magical view after sundown.
- The pergola and the gazebo are fantastic ways to elevate the decor with the lamp.
- Using sleek concrete garden edging surrounded by attractive garden flowers beneath the lamp will heighten the sense of laidback.
- Beautiful flower beds and borders with few trees make a straight line with a lamp that relaxes you after a hard day.
- Give a wonderful look by incorporating beside a figurine, to highlight the sculpt amazingly.

Dusting guide:

- Every art structure needs some care and maintenance to keep the charm and longevity.
 - Don't need to get stressed out, it will not require much time and effort. With a few steps of dusting,& you are done.
 - So before the dusting, turn off the circuit breaker, for safety precautions.
 - Now separate each part of the lamppost, and take out the bulb by using a rag or glove.
 - Take a dusting brush or feather brush to dust away from the spider wave, dust, and bug debris. Also, wipe down the light bulb as dust must be collected over its surface.
 - Once all the parts are cleaned, put them back into the previous form, and enjoy the illumination.

Product Description

Puri Jagannath Temple Odisha is known as the land of Lord Jagannath meaning the Lord of the Universe. Take a stroll down our top choices to see how our sculpture of Puri Jagannath temple could benefit from their stylish and novel designs in your home decor. Material: Soapstone / Pink stone Dimension(HWL): 9 x 4 x 10 inch Height: 9 inches

The significance of the home decor:

- It's a small replica of the Puri Jagannath temple.
- There are four gates to enter the temple and one of them is Singhdwara which is a Sanskrit word that means Lion Gate. There are statues of two lions one on each side of the gate. People can enter the temple through the staircase of 22 steps which is known as Baisi Pahacha.
- Arun Stambh is situated in front of the Singdwara. The pillar is sixteen-sided and is monolithic. The idol of Arun can be found here who drives the chariot of the Sun god.
- Hathidwara, Vyaghradwara, and Ashwadwara are the three other entrances from where people can enter the temple. Hathidwara is also known as elephant gate, Vyaghradwara as tiger gate, and Ashwadwara as horse gate. The gates are named so as they are guarded by elephants, tigers, and horses respectively.
- Mukti Mandapa is a platform made with granite and its height is five feet.

The sequence is as follows in the above design;

1. The Deula, Vimana, or Garba Griha (Sanctum sanctorum) is the location of the triad deities on the Ratna Vedi (Throne of Pearls). In the style of Rekha Deula.
2. Mukhashala (Porch in front).
3. Nata mandir / Natamandapa, also referred to as the Jagamohan (Auditorium/Dancing Hall), and
4. Bhoga Mandapa (Offerings Hall).

Puri Lord Jagannath temple:

- The historic Jagannath temple (Shrimandira) at Puri was built in the year 1078.
- The Jagannath Temple at Puri is one of the most respected Vaishnava sites of worship in India.
- The Jagannath Temple is a vital Hindu temple dedicated to Jagannath, a form of Sri Krishna
- A legend says that Indradyumna was a king who worshipped Lord Vishnu very much.

- One night he slept and saw Lord Jagannath in his dream. He also heard a voice telling him about a fragrant tree and ordering him to make idols from it.
- So the king made the idols of Lord Jagannath, Balabhadra, and Subhadra. Along with it, he also created the Sudarshan Chakra.
- The Puri temple is well-known for its annual Ratha Yatra or chariot festival.
- The Jagannath temple is one of the four pilgrimage sites of the Char Dham Pilgrimage by the Hindu population.
