Born as the prince of the Shakya tribe, named Siddhartha Gautama (the one who achieves aims), he has every luxury and opulence. He married at the age of 16 and had a son. Until the age of 29, he was away of experience of the real world, one day while on the way to Kapilavastu he encountered three aspects of human infirmity when he saw an old person, a sick man, and a dead carrying to the cremation ground, while returning to the palace he saw an ascetic walking down in the road with a peaceful expression. This incident make him realize that no wealth could prevent him from facing these phases. So in the quest to find the solution to this suffering, he left his lavish and royal life and left. And 6 years later by deep meditation and concentration he finally attain enlightenment and the answer to overcoming all the suffering. Rest his life he spent teaching others about his finding. Teaching Buddha is widely known as the Dharma chakra Buddha. Dharma means "Righteousness" and chakra means "Universe". In this pose he is seen, sitting on a lotus pedestal, in the Vajrasana pose. The lotus is a symbol of growing beautifully in dirty water likewise no matter what the situation is every human has the potential to overcome suffering and attain enlightenment. One handheld near the chest, in vitarka mudra, palm facing outward. signifying the wheel of the Dharma. The left hand rests on the lap, forming the same vitarka mudra, palm facing upward. The circle represents the continuous flow of wisdom. Lord Buddha teaching Buddha statue is a reflection of pure wisdom and spirituality. Keeping a teaching Buddha statue is favorable for those who desire to achieve academic success and spiritual growth. The best spiritual gift option for your loved ones. It amplifies the growth and awakening of your life. Placement: A perfect size to keep on any desk or shelf, mantle, at the home, office, study room, or library. The Northeast Zone is considered favorable. And one thing must keep in mind while placing the statue face him to the east. Care: Pink stone is a nonporous material so the cleaning is not so difficult, you can simply dust it with a cloth or broom.

Lakshmi-Narayana, who is the husband of Devi Lakshmi and this statue beautifully depicts the love of the deity couple. Lakshmi-Narayana are the supreme of gods and goddesses. During the churning of the ocean floor, goddess Lakshmi came out and all the demons and gods were stunned by her unimaginable beauty but she claimed that she is already married to Lord Narayana, who is the protector of this world from her all previous lives and married to him. She is the goddess of wealth and beauty, by worshipping both of these deities we can avail ample amount of wealth, beauty, love and peace. Here the deity couple are depicted to be standing next to each other, with a beautiful bhanga. Lord Narayana has four arms in which he holds the sankha, the conch, chakra, the sudarshan, and gada and with his fourth arm he blesses the masses being the protector. Goddess Lakshmi rests her one hand on Narayana and with the other she holds the lotus. The statuette is made out of the best type of stone i.e; Soapstone, a metamorphic rock which is composed primarily of talc and is usually very soft. Soapstone is typically grey, bluish, green, or brown in colour, often variegated. Its name is derived from its "soapy" feel and softness. The very famous statue of Rio De Janeiro, Brazil was also made of the same kind of soapstone.
