Product Description

Make your home glow with a beautiful, well-designed Jagannath Ji statue on Mandap. Another artistic creation by the team of CRAFTODISHA that looks simply fabulous on any tabletop. Material: Soapstone / Pinkstone Dimension(HWL): 6 x 4 x 4 inch Height: 6 inch Position: Sitting Exposition of the Jagannath Ji statues on mandap:

- The sculpture described here is a replica of Lord Jagannath, Balabhadra, and Goddess Subhadra.
- The idols have been engraved in Soapstone. They are not depicted in human form, unlike other Hindu gods.
- Their face is seen merging with the chest. Two huge symmetric circular eyes with no eyelids and two additional stumps on either side serve as the hands of the Lord.
- The legs, neck, and ears of the deity are not illustrated in the icon.
- The trio is sitting on a fully blossomed lotus under a Torana.

Jagannath Ji statue and its significance:

- The exalting god of puri Lord Jagannath idolized along with his elder brother and sister Lord Balabhadra and Goddess Subhadra.

- Puri Jagannath Temple is a Vaishnavite Pilgrimage site located in Puri, Odisha. Lord Vishnu is worshipped here. It is part of the holy Char Dham.
- His name is Patita Pabana Jagannath, Patitapabana is a amalgamation of two words, 'Patita' and 'Pabana'. In the local Odia language 'Patita' means 'Sinner' and 'Pabana' means 'purifier' so 'Patitapabana' combined means 'One who can even purify the sinner'. Like that Jagannath is a mixture of two words, 'Jagan' meaning world and 'Nath' meaning Lord.
- Lord Jagannath symbolizes Lord Vishnu, Balabhadra is Lord Shiva while Subhadra represents Goddess Durga.
- According to folk tales, Indradyumna was a king who was a devoted worshiper of Lord Vishnu. One night the king saw Lord Jagannath in his dream.
- He also listened to the voice of Lord Jagannath about an aromatic tree and ordered him to make icons from this tree. So the king made the models of God Jagannath, Balabhadra & Subhadra. Along with these idols he also made the Sudarshan Chakra.
