Description of the home garden statue:

- The above statue depicts "Goddess Durga" the personification of beauty, strength, morality & intelligence.
- Sitting on a lion, holding disparate weapons in her multiple hands, and adorned with finery makes the sculpt bewitching.
- The effigy is gracefully perched on a base, manifesting the artistry of the craftsman delicately.

How Goddess Durga emerged from the mighty Gods:

- Her birth was to kill a demon named Mahishashura who whip up devastation to all the living beings in the world, with the invincible boon he got from Lord Bramha by gratifying him with his penance.

- So, Lord Vishnu, Shiva, Bramha, and other gods integrated and transform their power into a divine appearance of a woman who is powerful enough to overwhelm the demon.
- The battle carried away for nine long days between Maa Durga and Mahishasura, on the tenth day, she finally transfix him with her Trishul.
- The nine-day long festival is celebrated as Navami and the tenth was celebrated as "Vijay Dashami" to honor the victory of Goddess Durga over the demon.

Redo the ambiance of your outdoorsy with the home garden statue:

- Complement your garden statue with an arbor surrounded by bushes and hedges, considering the color must be contrasted, which will beautify the grace of the look.
- A floral arrangement, stone, or gravel around the statue will be more eye-catching.
- If you want to place it near any pond or pool, place it along walkways or next to the water feature.

Bring love and peace within by keeping the sacred idol:

- Maa Durga protects its worshiper from the evil eye, black magic, and negative influences.
- She helps to overcome misery and obstacles from her devotee's life.
- The worshiper will be blessed with material wealth, prosperity, and success in both personal and professional life.

How and when to clean home garden statue:

- The durability and incredible strength make the Black stone distinguish, making them ideal for all-purpose(indoor & outdoor) weather-resistance statues.
 - When mother nature kisses them with rain and dirt, your statue desperately needs a thorough cleaning.
 - Wash the statue with a hose spray, be gentle with the pressure. Once the statue is soaked thoroughly, you can remove the dirt and grime with a scrubbing brush.
 - The last step is followed by wiping the sculpture with a soft cloth/towel and letting to dry.
