- The statue is seen sitting on a square lotus base.
- The fine detailing on the stone engraved on the sculpture is in such depth that it will make you speechless at first glance.
- The facial expression is given that oozes power and grace from the statue.
- As the stone carving of Odisha is famous globally it thus reveals how can a simplistic product of art transforms into a masterpiece of craftsmanship.

The mythical thoughts of the remarkable lion set :

- In Hinduism, one of the incarnations of Lord Vishnu was Narsimha, a half man-half lion.
- Goddess Durga, the ten-armed warrior goddess has seen riding lions, as they are associated with power and sovereignty.
- There are many Hindu gods to whom the lion served as a Vahana, like Parvati, Narasimhi, Katyayini, Skandamata, etc.

- In Buddhist culture statues of lions are said to bring harmony and fortune.
- The lion signifies pridefulness, that's why in many Hindu temples, lions sit at the main entrance, believed to protect and guard the temple.

A guide to placing the stunning set of lions.

- As per Vaastu, the pair should face the eastern side of the place, and the lion should face the main entrance.
- You can place the statue on either side of the entrance of your home, office, temple, or entrance of the zoo and park.
- Ornate the corner with the lion statue that suits them best in your home, restaurant, and hotel.
- The imaginative brilliance of a few other statues combines the statue in your outdoor pathways.
- Give a gorgeous finish to your home decor with the Lion Statue Set.
- Make the decor more satisfying by displaying it near a water feature like a swimming pool, pond, or fountain.
- This adorable statue will add a more friendly, lighthearted note that would look fabulous anywhere!
- Adding just one or two to a space brings life, humor, and playfulness to the outdoors.

Care and cleaning tips for the Lion Statue Set :

- Sandstone is an environment-friendly rock that looks amazing with the passing of an age.
  - Cleaning can be accomplished by giving a bath to the statue in the water. Afterward, wipe the statue with the help of a cloth or broom.
  - Finally, let the statue air dry.
