Characteristics of the Buddha head sculpture:

- His head was caped of 108 snails, who had surrendered their lives to make a safe focus free environment so that Buddha gets the way to enlightenment.
- His long ears remind us that once he was a prince who wears heavy jewelry but gave up all on divinity and mankind.
- His smiling lips show that despite all suffering, he has higher wisdom and understanding of the universe.

- The circular dot on his forehead resembles the third eye, he can see outside the physical and materialistic arena.

An insight into the life of Gautama Buddha:

- "Buddha" word means "the awakened one".
- An iconic figurine of Sakyamuni Buddha is adequate to perceive the majesty of this historical leader who influenced the social and political frame of India.
- Gautama was born in a Kshatriya clan, the son of Suddhodana, elected chief of the Shakya clan, whose capital was Kapilavastu. His mother's name was Maya.
- King Suddhodana, wishing for his son to be a great king, protected him from any contact with human suffering, as well as, religious education.
- He was grown and brought up with all prosperity and luxury.
- It was after spending 29 years as the prince of Kapilavastu, that Siddharth eventually got a peek at the outside real world. Gautama Buddha noticed three things- an old man, a dead body, and a sick man.
- It makes him upset by the harsh truth, that every human on earth is subject to the suffering of getting old, sick, and dead, and no luxury or pleasure will protect him from getting the Dukha/suffering.
- He also saw a monk who is roaming with peace and calmness on his face, these three sights made him understand how life is full of suffering and how it is just a temporary phase. Post his meeting with the outside world, he decided to leave the royal duties and family to attain enlightenment. And traveled into the forest, and spent six long years studying ideologies and undergoing yogic asceticisms.
- He spent seven weeks in the shade of a Bodhi tree until he attained Nirvana. Then he sermonized sermons and embarked on missionary travels for 45 years and later left the world at the age of 80.

Authentic decor tips for the Buddha head statue:

- Exhibiting it on vacant corners is perfect that work as a rich and elegant addition to your home decor.
