Product Description

This apsara statue is a masterpiece created with the same. This apsara is presented playing flute with her both hands, with mesmerising expressions covering her face and beautiful bhanga. In Indian mythology, apsaras are beautiful, supernatural female beings. They are youthful and elegant, and superb in the art of dancing. They are often wives of the Gandharvas, the court musicians of Indra. They dance to the music made by the Gandharvas, usually in the palaces of the gods, to entertain. Sandstone has been used for domestic construction and housewares since prehistoric times, and continues to be used. It has also been used for artistic purposes to create ornamental fountains and statues. Bring home this statuette to not just enhance the beauty but to decorate your house or office and leave the visitors spell-bind.
