Product Description

Lord Krishna is the eighth incarnation of lord Vishnu in the Dwapara yuga, the preserver lord took the form to defeat the evil and protect his devotees. This captivating statuette of lord Krishna presents him playing his favourite musical instrument standing in the Tribhanga position. The mesmerizing form of the lord had captivated the hearts of hundreds of milk-maidens of Gokuldharm in Dwapara Yug, and has the ability to leave the spectators' spell-bind in Kalyug too. This beautiful artwork is a bright example of the hard work of the artisans of Odisha, their extra-ordinary skill, brilliant thought and outstanding vision. So bring home this adorable statuette to be protected from the evil and to be bestowed upon with prosperity, success, love and harmony.
