

Unique Lord Krishna gopa lila (legends) scroll 31x18 inch

Read More

SKU: 00360

Price: ₹51,520.00 inc. GST

Stock: onbackorder

Categories: Palm Leaf Scroll Paintings, Wall Decor

Product Description

Lord Krishna the eighth incarnation of lord Vishnu in Dwapara Yuga had the motif of spreading the message of selfless love and oneness and Gopis were epitome of selfless love. In this palm leaf scroll, gopis are depicted beautifully forming a temple on which lord Krishna is presented to be sitting over a lotus flower playing his flute gracefully. In other picture lord Krishna is depicted stealing clothes of the gopis with was one of the notorious deed of the playful lord. And the several other pictures on the scroll depicting lord Krishna playing around with these beautiful maidens of Gokuldharm. Lord Krishna would play his flute and that would make the maidens forget everything, get marooned and dance to the melodious tune of the playful lord. So bring home this scroll depicting the playful and heroic acts of the lord in disguise as human and add charm to your house and enhance the aesthetics of your house or workplace.
