

Garuda with folded hand Granite stone statue 12 inch

Read More

SKU: 00450

Price: ₹16,000.00 Original price was: ₹16,000.00. ₹11,500.00 Current price is: ₹11,500.00. inc. GST

Stock: outofstock

Categories: Statues & Sculptures, Hindu Statues, Garuda Statues

Product Description

Garuda, the legendary bird is the mount or vahana of the preserver god lord Vishnu. Garuda is the son of Vinata and Kashyapa. Garuda is the embodiment of strength and power and is generally represented as a giant man with golden body of human and red feathers and beak of birds like Vulture or eagle. He is the symbol of life and heaven and the biggest enemy of snake, who are the symbol of death. Garuda is generally referred as “Khageswara”, the king of the birds. In this statuette he is carved out of the black stone with preciseness and is presented kneeling on one leg with folded hands. Bring home this mythical creature to receive the blessings of lord Vishnu himself and feel protected from any poison.
