Product Description

Lord Ganesha is the lord of auspiciousness and beginning. He is worshiped for removing the obstacles and to be bestowed with success, prosperity and boon. In this statue Ganesha is portrayed sitting over a platform with his trunk facing towards the right which makes him the "Siddhi-Vinayak". His one leg is resting on the ground where as his other leg is raised which depicts that he partially belongs to the ground as well as heaven. He is depicted having four hands, two holding a mace and a noose, other bearing the sweet bowl and last hand raised to bestow blessings upon his devotees. With a snake tied on his pot belly and a tiny mouse placed near his feet, the statue is carved out of black stone with perfection. This statue will not just improve the ambience of your house, office or garden but will also increase the spiritual level of your house.
