

Ramayana legends pattachitra painting bottle

Read More

SKU: 00490

Price: ₹6,160.00 inc. GST

Stock: outofstock

Categories: Decor, Painting bottles

Tags: decorative bottles, flower vase, Pattachitra, pattachitra paintings, table decor, table top

Product Description

Lord Rama is the seventh incarnation of Lord Vishnu, an bright example of an obedient son, a caring brother, an just king and an exemplary character of Hindu mythology of all times. You must have come across several portrayals of lord Rama, his idols, charts, paintings and lot more. Here we bring a unique and outstanding portrayal of a part of lord Rama's life on the pattachitra painted bottle. The skillful representation over the bland glass bottle is depicting the victory of lord Rama over Tadaka, his mission of rescuing Ahalya, him blessing the boatman and his marriage with goddess Sita, the incarnation of goddess Lakshmi. This is a perfect definition of the magic created when waste meets creativity. So grab this, for enhancing the spiritual value along with beautification of your house or office at a very affordable price.
